*I*n the past, we have had the sacred privilege of sharing with families their struggle and hard work to put together an appropriate celebration and remembrance for their deceased loved one. In these experiences we also have seen how important and significant it is for families to have communication from their loved one about the funeral or memorial service. It makes their planning easier, and it helps focus their efforts for how their loved one wants things to be.

We have prepared this resource to be used when a loved one has died, as well as assisting in making plans for your own desires for your service. In this Funeral and Memorial Service Planning Resource, we have included the essentials and given you the information needed to make plans. If there are questions or issues that come up, which we have not included, please feel free to call upon us to assist you. We will be glad to help.

No one wants to think that they will die. It is a subject that we had rather not talk about, yet we all know that none of us will escape that event. This is why families are so appreciative when a loved one has taken the time to make plans for their funeral or memorial service. They realize what an act of love those plans represent. In putting together this resource for funeral and memorial planning we are encouraging you to perform an act of love for your family. It will not be easy but true love never is.

Love always calls for the best from us.

Grace and Peace,

Rev. April Johnson Bristow

Rev. Rich Rindfuss

A Place to begin... . . . Process, Protocol & Considerations

Prior to death...

Our ministers consider it a sacred privilege to visit and pray with you during this difficult time. If time and circumstances allow, please call the church office (972.235.8385) to notify us of your situation. One of our ministers will make every effort to come and pray with you and your family.

In the event that you call after office hours, your information will be directed to the “minister on call” by our answering service. A minister will be in touch with you as soon as possible.

When death occurs...

When your loved one dies, please call the church office. If possible, one of our ministers will come and be with you. If this occurs after office hours, your call will be directed to the minister on call by the answering service. The minister will call you back as soon as possible.

Setting the date and time for service...

Our ministers are happy to help you plan a meaningful service to celebrate the life of your loved one. One of our pastors will coordinate the service, please visit with him or her prior to scheduling the service date and time.

There are two areas where services may be held at the church:

Chapel which seats up to 100

Sanctuary which accommodates a service for 25 - 1,300

Due to the on-going worship service schedule of the church, funerals and memorial services* will not be held on Sundays. In addition, the church typically does not perform services during specific holiday weekends, church events or on Saturdays. The minister will review the availability of our facilities and his or her calendar in order to set the service at a time that is convenient for all.

*Memorial Service: Casket is not present

Funeral Service: Casket is present

Planning the service...

The minister that is leading the service will want to meet with the family members at the church or at your home and coordinate the service. This is a time to share stories and favorite memories of your loved one. Family members will find this to be a very helpful time as well as a source of comfort.

Your loved one may have left instructions about the service. Please share these instructions with the pastor at this time. In the back of this resource, you will find a list of hymns and scripture suggestions. This will be a helpful resource to you prior to meeting with the minister.

Music & Media...

When a loved one dies, people often find themselves at a loss for words. Music can unveil a dimension of meaning and feeling that words alone cannot. It is natural that the church involves music during the service designed to remember and celebrate the life of your loved one. The Chapel and Sanctuary has an organ and grand piano. A musician for the organ or piano will be available for the service.

All music selections should give glory to God and witness to our hope in Jesus Christ.. Music and video for the funeral must reflect this understanding of ultimate hope. Hymns can also be used as solos. Any video or multi-media presentation should be limited to four minutes or less and must be received, pre-viewed, and approved by the officiating pastor twenty-four hours before the service.

Expenses...

There are no building usage fees for services held at First United Methodist Church Richardson. There is an organist or pianist fee of $125. If a vocalist or instrumentalist is desired there will be an additional fee for this person or persons. These honorariums are due on the day of the service and should be made payable to the individual.

If long distance travel is required, expenses of the clergy should be covered.

Flowers & Memorial Gifts...

The family may wish to provide flowers for the altar. Delivery should be at least one and a half hours prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, families may wish to offer donations to the church in memory of their loved one.

Columbarium...

If you choose cremation, FUMCR now offers a beautiful resting place for the internment of ashes. The Columbarium is located in a garden area north of the sanctuary. The site is a place of dignity and beauty where family and friends can visit and meditate at any time. The Columbarium can be used by church members (past or present) and members of the immediate families. For specific information, please contact the Director of Finance - 972.996.0106.

Care for Grieving Families on the Day of Service...

FUMCR wishes to be of assistance to our members during this time. We offer one of the following as a means of caring for you and your family:

A meal (up to 35 people) delivered to the home of your choice on the day of the service or on the day prior to the service. This meal could also be at the church if space is available.

-or-

A reception in the Shawver Welcome Center following the service to include cookies and cold and hot beverages. Servers are provided by the Caring Ministries. The family may provide additional trays of food, if prior arrangements are made.
